NOTES

LEBANON-ISRAEL-FEDAYEEN: Lebanon has indicated that it will probably take limited measures against the fedayeen in the hope of softening Israeli retaliation for the recent incident at Tel Aviv airport. President Franjiyyah has told the US ambassador that although his government is reluctant to move against all fedayeen organizations, it will take some measures against the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine, the group responsible for the airport incident. The Lebanese Army has been placed on alert and additional defensive weapons have been deployed around Beirut airport. Contrary to press reports of an Israeli military buildup along the border, [REDACTED]
